

I am a graphic design graduate with a passion for communicating visually; for developing concepts into clear and engaging solutions. I am adaptable within a team and also work well individually.

I combine ideas and design skills with a high standard of literacy and written communication.

Education and Qualifications

BA (Hons) Graphic Design (grade TBC)
Kingston University 2006-2009

Foundation Degree in Art and Design with Distinction
Chelsea College of Art and Design 2005-2006

A levels
Art and Design A
Design and Technology A
English Literature A
Mathematics A
Eltham College 2003-2005

GCSEs in 12 subjects
7 A
4 A
1 B
Newstead Wood School for Girls 1998-2003

Experience

April 2009
Designed and produced website for Pauline Shone, an artist and illustrator.

August 2008
Work placement with The Ebeling Group, London. Worked on idents for promotional DVDs and presentation films.

November 2007-February 2008
Designed and produced identity, website and promotional material for Nu-boosthealth, a nutritional therapy company.

February 2006-March 2007
Cast Member at the Disney Store, Bromley. Included promotion of the worldwide Disney brand and visual merchandising as well as supervision and problem-solving experience.

June 2002
Work placement with Pringle Brandon, Architects, working with the Marketing and Interior Design teams.

Sarah Burnett

sc.burnett@yahoo.co.uk
www.sarah-burnett.co.uk
07756 427 235

37 Park Farm Road
Bromley
Kent
BR1 2PE

Achievements

Won a pitch to design the 2008 identity for the Philip Lawrence Awards, including the magazine, invitation, awards, prize cheque and exhibition boards. Worked in a group of four alongside the charity 4children.

Proficient in Photoshop, InDesign and Illustrator, with knowledge of Dreamweaver and Flash.